HAPPY DOLLARS & NEWS:

JIM SNYDER’S daughter ASHLEY and mother MAGGIE joined us as guests. Ashley graduated from the Air Force Academy and was chosen to attend MIT. Her thesis is on data mining: statistics and patterns used to predict an outcome. Her study is on real time emergency room patients and determining their lengths of stay by factoring in their age, day of the week, time of day, diagnosis, etc. She will be graduating from MIT with her master’s degree and loves to play rugby. She loves living in Boston but after graduating, she plans to move to either Colorado or Northern California. Now we can see why JIM brags about his kids!!

KEN HOTALING and Mara are delighted that the big snow forced schools in Longmont to close. This gave Ken and Mara a change to watch their two grandkids. The 9 year old is always looking for “hard cash” and went out shoveling the neighbors’ driveways for $10 and sidewalks for $5. The 7 year old was initially enthused about shoveling, but found making snow forts a lot more fun.

JIM SNYDER thanked PETE MANGOLD and KEN HOTALING for conducting mock interviews with his son who is preparing for the Big Interviews for either the Air Force or the Army.

HOKE JOHANSEN is happy that ED KELLENBERGER drove today.
